PEOPLE OF HOPE

Throughout this Easter season the readings have drawn us into the experience of the early church. We have tasted the excitement and zeal of the first Christians. Now, with them, we listen to the words of Saint Peter, who reminds us that when people notice that we are people of hope, we should be ready to explain why. This challenges us. Do others even notice that we are people of hope? In a world often marked by cynicism and hopelessness, do we stand out as people who offer hope and reassurance to others? In today's Gospel Jesus promises that when he leaves the earth he will not leave us orphaned. Today he promises to send his Advocate, the Spirit of truth who will be with us always. Let us acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to make us people of hope.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The custom of genuflection is not found everywhere in the Catholic Church. In fact, it is a bit of breach of etiquette to genuflect in most Eastern Catholic Churches. If you're visiting an Eastern Catholic or an Orthodox church, the "when in Rome" rule should be adopted. Watch what the home team is doing! Usually, Eastern Catholics and Orthodox reserve a small portion of the eucharistic bread for the dying in a cupboard or eucharistic dove, but it is not a center of attention or devotion. The rule is to make a profound bow, called a "metasis," toward the altar—bowing deeply while making the sign of the cross.

East and West split years before we Westerners began to reserve the Blessed Sacrament prominently in our churches. Thus, the East never changed the original custom of bowing toward the altar. Increasingly, as tabernacles became more widespread in the West and moved into prominent placement within churches, we replaced the bow toward the altar with a genuflection toward the Blessed Sacrament when its place of reservation is visible.

In a church where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in a special chapel or off the main axis of the building, normally you should bow toward the altar when you enter your pew, because the eucharistic table is the principal sign of Christ's presence in the church building. If you have ever participated in the liturgy of Dedication of a Church and Altar, there is no mistaking the altar's significance: it is first slathered with chrism and then adorned with a brazier billowing clouds of incense that fill the whole church as a sign of prayer and presence!

WHAT IS A MASS INTENTION?

A person may ask for a Mass Intention for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, the most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

When a priest offers Holy Mass, he has three intentions: First, to offer the Mass reverently and validly in accord with the norms of the Church. Second, to offer the Mass in union with the whole Church and for the good of the whole Church. Third, to offer the Mass for a particular intention, such as the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

When we face the death of someone, even a person who is not Catholic, to have a Mass offered for the repose of his soul and to offer our prayers are more beneficial and comforting than any other sympathy card or bouquet of flowers. To have a Mass offered on the occasion of a birthday, anniversary or special need is appropriate, beneficial and appreciated.

If you would like to request a Mass for someone, we request at least a week notice. We understand the importance of having a Mass said and want to make sure we do right by everyone. The Mass stipend is $10.00.

If you want to make sure it appears in the bulletin, we need at least 2 weeks.

You can call the office at 630/668-1325 Monday thru Thursday between 9:00-4:00 or Friday between 9:00-12:00 to request a Mass.

We look forward to VITAS Healthcare's ninth annual Hearts & the Arts program, which will be held this July.

This fun and meaningful program is for children who may benefit from a music therapy bereavement group. There is no charge to participants. Members from the community are welcome to enroll, and no prior involvement with VITAS is required.

Hearts & the Arts will take place Wednesday, July 5, 12, 19 and 26 from 1:00 - 3:00pm in the Lombard office, 580 Waters Edge Dr., Lombard. While children meet with VITAS music therapists, a concurrent support group for adults will be led by VITAS social workers.

If you have any questions or wish to register your child or children, please leave a voicemail for either of our Music Therapists, Ana Madden or Bryn McCabe-Weiland, by calling the VITAS office at 630/495-8484.

TIPS FOR HOW TO HELP A PERSON WITH MENTAL ILLNESS

Because 1 in 5 Americans lives with a mental health condition, you likely encounter people with a mental illness in your family or in your daily life. Stigma and myths around mental illness can make us nervous about how to relate to someone. If you are unsure of how best to approach someone who may be struggling, these tips may help.

- Find a space that is comfortable, where you won't likely be interrupted and where there are minimal distractions.
- Ease into the conversation. It may be that the person is not in a place to talk, and that is OK. A greeting and a gentle kindness can go a long way. Sometimes less is more.
- Be sure to speak in a relaxed, calm and straightforward manner and stick to one topic at a time.

- Be respectful, compassionate and empathetic to their feelings by engaging in reflective listening, such as "I hear that you are having a bad day today. Yes, some days are certainly more challenging than others. I understand."
- Be a good listener, be responsive and make eye contact with a caring approach.
- Speak at a level appropriate to the person's age and development level. Keep in mind that mental illness has nothing to do with a person's intelligence.
- Show respect and understanding for how they describe and interpret their symptoms.
- Genuinely express your concern. Be real and authentic.
- Offer your support and connect them to help if you feel that they need it. Ask, "How can I help?" if appropriate, or even, "Can I pray with you now?" if appropriate.
- Give the person hope for recovery, offer encouragement and prayers.

Prayer: God who has created us all. May we be good companions to each other in life's journey and have the courage to reach out to those who need our love and care.
