UNIQUELY YOU

We may think only special people have a vocation, either to the priesthood or religious life. The fact is that each baptized Christian has a vocation to be a disciple of Jesus. The Lord knows us individually and intimately, including our personal histories, our strengths and weaknesses, and our destinies. God has a purpose in mind for every one of us. Pope John Paul II held that God's eternal plan is only revealed to us in the unfolding of our lives. Every life is unique, which is also to say that every vocation is unique. Fortunately, our vocations are best lived out in the community of faith where we can help one another hear the Lord's voice and respond to it. Baptism is the beginning of each Christian vocation—in other words, the why of being a Christian—while stewardship is the how. Stewardship is a way to discern, accept, and live out joyfully and generously the commitments, responsibilities, and roles to which God calls us. Here in our parish community, refracted through the prism of all our individual vocations, is a way of life embodying and expressing the one mission of Christ: to do God's will, to proclaim the Good News of salvation, to heal the afflicted, to care for one another, to live life to the fullest as Jesus did. Fortunately, we do not have to do this by our own efforts. As Jesus assures us in today's Gospel, there is help. The strength of the Holy Spirit fills the hearts of all who love the Lord and follow in his way. The call to live this way is urgent. Jesus does not tell us to follow him some time in the future, or whenever we feel like it. The moment is now.

THE GIFT OF PEACE

"There arose no little dissension and debate." Did that happen at work this week? Most of us can recall run-ins with coworkers, even with the boss. Did it happen while socializing with friends? Go easy on politics, religion . . . even sports. At home? Even the most peaceful household experiences a little "give and take" now and then. So where was it that "there arose no little dissension and debate"? That tumultuous conflict occurred among our first Christian ancestors, disrupting the community life of the early church. But today's Acts of the Apostles shows how beautifully the Holy Spirit, promised by Jesus in today's Gospel, helped the church achieve a grace-filled resolution. What evolved was that "reconciled diversity," often encouraged by Pope Francis and even envisioned in today's Revelation passage; and a wondrous experience of Jesus' promised Gospel gift: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."

Two gifts: Holy Spirit and Peace. Even though Jesus announces his leaving, he still remains with the disciples ... and with us. And he gives two gifts: the Holy Spirit and Easter peace. Even amid the discord of this world, these gifts are more than enough to live resurrected life – a daily life of inner and outer harmony.

- ♦ What will I let the Holy Spirit teach me this week?
- ♦ What peace of Christ do I need this week?
- ♦ How can I help bring peace – even in some small way – by what I say and do this week?

MEMORIAL DAY

FOR OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN MILITARY SERVICE

O Prince of Peace, we humbly ask Your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity, and devotion the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Guard our churches, our homes, our schools, our hospitals, our factories, our buildings, and all those within from harm and peril.

Protect our land and its peoples from enemies from within and without. Grant an early peace with victory founded upon justice. Instill in the hearts and minds of men and women everywhere a firm purpose to live forever in peace and good will toward all.
Amen.
